

PROGRAM GFI 2018

DRIVING OUTCOMES IN CONTINENCE CARE – CREATING A WIN-WIN FOR PATIENTS, CARERS AND HEALTH SYSTEMS

Opening Session Day 1 08:30 - 10.00	Plenary Session 1 Day 1 10:30 - 12:20	Plenary Session 2 Day 1 13:35 - 15:15	Plenary Session 3 Day 1 15:45 - 17:40	Opening Session Day 2 08:30 – 09.25	Working Sessions Day 2 09:25 – 12.00	Closing Session Day 2 12:00 – 13:00
Why should Incontinence be a policy priority?	Continence care – where are we today?	What does good look like and how should this be measured?	Competence &amp; tools to drive good outcomes	Differing perspectives coming together	Country breakout sessions	Feedback country breakout sessions
A view from Italy – THE TIME IS NOW!	State of the nation on prevention, cure and care Presentation & panel discussion	Optimal Continence Service Specification (OCSS) a framework for delivering high standards of care for people with incontinence	The role of nurses and professional carers to deliver effective containment strategies	Panel discussion: Achieving a win-win for patients, carers and health systems – outcome measures and KPIs for effective toileting and containment strategies!	Putting outcome measures into practice	Conclusions and a way forward
How big is the problem? Incontinence in numbers	Are we safeguarding dignity in continence care? - the role of good toileting and containment strategies	The role of patient-reported outcome &amp; experience measures: how OECD measures performance	Help to Choose – Questions to ask to recommend a Toileting and Containment Strategy		Abstract poster session – good practice examples	Award ceremony  Wrap up
Multi-factorial incontinence – a multi-factorial challenge for an ageing population	Standards and outcome measures in management for containment. What is available today to support care delivery?	Care provider point of view on outcome measures	Innovative technologies enabling fast progression in continence care
	Skin health in relation to incontinence - a valuable outcome measure?	Policymaker perspective on outcome measures	AGE Platform Europe Barometer - comparing care Support throughout Europe
		Measuring outcomes to improve the management of continence care	Funding &amp; Reimbursement			